Three things to remember

Take this home. Share it with someone you love.

1. PAUSE. VERIFY. ASK. When a call, text, or email makes you feel rushed or scared, stop. Hang up. Call back on a number you already know. Ask someone you trust before you send money or information.

2. Set a family safe word. AI can copy a voice from a few seconds of video. Pick a word only your family knows, and ask for it if a "grandchild" calls in trouble.

3. Never type private details into a chatbot. No Social Security numbers, account numbers, passwords, or medical records. Ask AI general questions, and check important answers with a second source.

Tonight: pick your family's safe word together. Say it out loud; don't write it on this sheet or post it online.
